

On June 2, 2003, please do not vote to allow further media consolidation -- it is already too difficult to access a variety of information locally! We need more not less competition and points of view.